3. Prizes

3.1. Eligibility

Prizes may be awarded to successful Teams and individual players at or following a Tournament. In general, the prizes earned by a Team or player will be delivered directly to the Owners of the Team, and the Owners shall be responsible for dividing the prize and paying it to players and others who contributed to the victory. Each Team or player that has been declared the winner of a prize in the Tournament will not be an official winner unless:

- (i) the Team or player is eligible to receive the prize under applicable law;
- (ii) the winning player executes (or has a parent or legal guardian execute) an affidavit of eligibility, liability release and/or any other documentation required by Crit Esports & Entertainment ("Crit"); and
- (iii) the Owners of the winning Team execute an affidavit of eligibility, liability release, and/or any other documentation required by Crit Esports ("Crit"). Failure to sign and return all prize documentation to the Tournament Organizer or AMPRO Officials may result in forfeiture and loss of the prize.

The failure to take delivery of any prize within a reasonable time after the close of the Tournament may result in forfeiture and loss of the prize. National, state and local taxes, including taxes, which are associated with the receipt or use of any prizes are the sole responsibility of the winner. All cash prizes will be paid in Brunei dollars. Winners will be required to complete and submit to the Tournament Organizer all governmental and tax forms required to receive a cash prize, and any other forms required by the country in which LAN Events are held. Prizes are not transferable.

3.2. Terms of Player Payment

As per the Agreement, all payments shall be transferred to the bank account of the Owner/Organization/Management as informed to the Organizer. This will take approximately within 30 days to 90 days after the final tournament ends. However, should the Owner/Organization/Management fail to pay its players as per the amount agreed in this Agreement between the Owner/Organization/Management and the players, the Owner/Organization/Management shall be disqualified to participate in the VALORANT for the period of 2 years.

Additionally, the Owner/Organization/Management shall be voided of their tournament prize winnings or in case where the Organizer found any evidence that is suspicious which the Owner/Organization/Management does not proportionately distribute the prize to the player; the Owner/Organization/Management acknowledges and agrees that the Organizer shall distribute the prize to the player by themselves by transferring the prize to the player’s account directly.

4.4. Grand Final Schedule

TBD

5. VALORANT AMPRO Series Season 1 Standard Operating Procedures for Players

5.1. Preparations for Tournament Matches

- a. Ensure that the Players VALORANT account is ready and registered to each player's registration form.
- b. Ensure players are in the official CRIT Esports Discord servers and have done the required verification process with the Marshals in charge.
- c. Team captains to attend the Team briefing which will be announced to team captains in the future.
- d. Rehearsal and testing day which will be announced to the team captains in the future.

5.2. Pre-Tournament Matches

- a. Check that all players are ready for the tournament.
- b. Check that all the tournament devices, and tournament accounts are in order.
- c. Once the check in period opens, check in through the Discord channel with the specified procedures.
- d. Submit the playing roster for each match during the check in time
- e. Players are to enter Discord into their Team Channel with the AMPRO Crew in charge with the Team for that day.
- f. Start the player webcam and wait for AMPRO Marshals confirmation
- g. Check that all communications channels are working.

5.3. During Tournament Matches

- a. Once the lobby is announced, please make sure to enter the tournament lobby 15 minutes before the scheduled start time
- b. Once all 5 players are in the correct team slot, inform the AMPRO Crew in charge of them to verify.

- Once the AMPRO Crew has verified that the players have entered the lobby and the correct team slot, players are to stay in that slot until the game starts.
 - If the players get kicked out from the lobby due to inactivity, report to the AMPRO Crew and re-enter the lobby and the correct team slot again as fast as possible (the punctuality score will not be affected by this).
- c. Stay in the Discord for any updates from AMPRO Crew, or if the Team needs Crew assistance.
- d. Players may not leave their Discord channel or close their webcam at any point of the match, interact with non-players or open the broadcasted streams until all the players in the Team are eliminated.
- Any person that is not in the Playing Roster may not be in the stream while the official Tournament Match starts until the whole Team is eliminated from that Match.

5.4. Post Tournament Matches

- a. Once the match is finished, players are to submit their end game screenshot to their respective Marshals.

- b. If your team won the match, the Team Captain (or a Player Representative) should immediately go to the Winner Interview Call session with the host. Refer to Clause 6.6 of Player Kit ("Larix Broadcast ") for the guide on using Vmix.
- c. Players are to take a maximum of 5 minutes break between maps and a maximum of 15 minutes between series
- d. Prepare for the next match.

5.5. Larix Broadcast Procedures

For any Team that wins a VALORANT AMPRO Series Season 1 official match, a Winner Interview will be done with the Team Captain (or a Player Representative, as decided by the Tournament Organizer). The Winner Interview will be done through vMix Call or Discord. Players are to be ready within 5 minutes of the game ending to join the Interview.
